

Arcadia Entranceway Construction Begins

Two entranceways into Arcadia, displaying medallions of the various service and fraternal organizations in the community are now a reality due to the efforts of the Arcadia Women's Club.

Mrs. Harry Lauber, chairman of the Women's Club project said that 14 organizations together contributed the $1400 necessary for construction. A check for that amount was deposited with the city treasurer Thursday.

The project, which gained approval of the Arcadia City Council last March, was designed free of charge by John Mill a member of the firm Beckhart and Mill Architects, Los Angeles.

Standing six feet high and measuring 15 feet in width, the structures will be constructed of dark slate on which emblems of the various organizations will be hung. The extra slate walls will be added to the already existing city entranceways at Huntington Drive and Fifth Avenue and Huntington Drive and Michillinda Avenue.

Participating in the project with $200 donations each are the following Arcadia organizations: Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary, Exchange, Jaycees, Jr. Womens Club, High Twelve, Soroptimist, Arcadia Garden Club, American Legion, Elks Arcadia Lodge 2025 and the Civitan Club.

Mrs. Lauber said that construction on the project would begin within the next week.

According to Mrs. Lauber no city funds are being used for the new construction. All preliminary costs were absorbed by the Women's Club.
